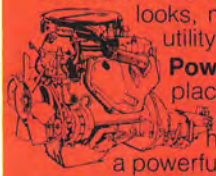
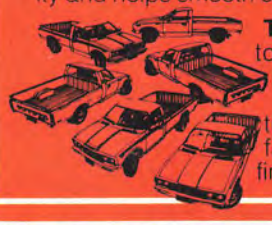
YOUTILITY

Match your truck needs with this 1978 Toyota SR-5 Long Bed Sport Truck. Heavy hauling. Light loads. Business trucking. Personal recreation. You name it. For economy, comfort, reliability and good looks, make the Toyota SR-5 Long Bed your universal utility vehicle.



Power—You asked for it. The biggest standard displacement engine in the class. A rugged 2.2 liter design with loads of torque. It's bolted to a husky 5-speed overdrive gearbox. They make a powerful combination that makes haulin' easy.

Handling—You asked for it. Wide radial-ply tires put more power down with bigger "footprints." Power-assisted front disc brakes help make stopping easier—even fully loaded. A "car-like" independent front suspension aids stability and helps smooth out roads to keep your load more secure.



Toughness—You asked for it. Toyota means tough. The welded steel cab is virtually rattle-proof. A 7-foot bed takes an 1100 lb. payload. Yet, this is one good looking truck. There are 5 others in the Toyota truck family and they're why we say, "If you can find a better built truck than a Toyota...buy it."

THE FORUM — "HOME" OF THE LAKERS

It has been called "Fabulous" or "The House that Jack Built", but by whatever name, The Forum is truly the West Coast's premeir showplace.

Conceived by Lakers' and Kings' President Jack Kent Cooke, who wanted his building to be classical and yet completely contemporary, groundbreaking ceremonies were held on September 21, 1966. A scant 16 months later, Cooke was opening the doors to The Forum, a building that was an architectural adaptation of the ancient Colosseum in Rome, and designed with unequalled attention to the spectator and his viewing pleasure.

The Fabulous Forum was officially opened on December 30, 1967, when 14,366 fans saw the Los Angeles Kings drop a 2-0 decision to the Philadelphia Flyers. The first victory in The Forum came the next evening, December 31, when the Lakers ushered in the New Year with a 147-118 triumph over the San Diego Rockets before a throng of 14,844.

For comfort, beauty, and sightlines, there is no finer building than The Forum. Holding 17,505 people for basketball and 16,005 for hockey, The Forum was designed to insure that every seat is a good one. Over 70% of the seats are between the baskets or the goals for more choice locations, and the furthest seat from the playing surface is only 170 feet away.

The finest in dining is provided at the private Forum Club, the public Whistle Stop, and numerous concession stands.

In addition to being the "home" of the Lakers and Kings, The Forum is also the home of Forum Boxing, Inc., The Forum Championship Rodeo, The Forum International Horse Show, and home court for the Los Angeles Strings of World Team Tennis.

BILL SHARMAN
GENERAL MANAGER

As a player, he was an integral part of the greatest championship dynasty in basketball history. And as coach, his record for winning championships may never be surpassed. Now in his third season as Lakers' General Manager, Bill Sharman has proven to be just as big a winner in the front office.

A keen judge of talent, both on the college and professional levels, Sharman has been responsible for the key drafting and trading that has made the Lakers one of the top teams in the NBA.

As a player, Sharman spent 10 years with the Boston Celtics and helped lead the team to four World Championships and five division titles. Teamed with Bob Cousy to form what many consider to be the best backcourt of all-time, Sharman is recognized as one of the greatest pure shooters in the history of the game, and his name still dots the NBA record book.

During his career he averaged 18 points a game and led the league in free throw shooting seven times, hitting 88% of his shots from the foul line. During the playoffs Sharman was even better, averaging 19 points a game and making 91% of his charity tosses.

For 10 straight seasons Sharman led the Celtics in foul shooting and today he is still the Celtic's sixth all-time leading scorer (12,287 points), with the seventh best overall scoring average (18.1).

In February, 1976, Sharman received the greatest of basketball honors by being selected to the National Basketball Hall of Fame, a tribute that has only been given to the ultra-elite of the NBA.

As a coach, Sharman's record is equally impressive. He is the only coach in history to win championships in three professional leagues. In 1962 he guided the Cleveland Pipers to the American Basketball League title, in 1971 his Utah Stars won the ABA crown, and in 1972 he coached the Lakers to their only World Championship since coming to Los Angeles.

Sharman has also seen head-coaching duty with the San Francisco Warriors (1966-68), where his first season he took his team to the NBA finals, and his second year he went to the division finals.

Sharman was born in Abilene, Texas, but was raised in Porterville, California, where he developed into a prep basketball standout. He then went on to USC and became a two-time All-American. After graduating in 1949, he spent one season with the Washington Caps before joining the Celtics in 1950. He now resides in Palos Verdes.

JERRY WEST
HEAD COACH

When Jerry West took over the Laker coaching reins in 1976, he was faced with the toughest act to follow in professional basketball—namely himself.

For 14 years as a player with the Lakers, West carved out a reputation as the greatest guard in the history of the game while taking the Lakers to 14 straight playoff appearances. And now, as coach, he was expected to continue his winning ways.

In his first coaching season West did all of that and then some. He not only won, but guided the Lakers to the best record in the NBA, 53-29, and the Western Conference finals in the playoffs. Last season, despite the crippling effect of losing five players with broken bones, another with a suspension, and two others in mid-season trades, West still directed the Lakers to a 45-37 mark and a playoff berth.

West was the Lakers first round draft pick in 1960—the team's first season in Los Angeles—and for the next 14 years he earned a reputation as the best all-around guard in the history of the National Basketball Association.

Scoring, playmaking, and defense is the name of the game, and in all three areas Jerry West had no equal. In 1969-70 he led the league in scoring, averaging 31.2 points per game. In 1971-72 he led the league in assists with 747. The All-Defensive Team was established in 1968-69 and West was selected to the first team four times.

West finished his NBA career as the league's third all-time scorer with 25,192 points—one of only three players in history to score more than 25,000 points. He has the fifth highest career scoring average in history—27.0 points per game. He is also the second all-time leader in free throws made (7,160), fourth in field goals made (9,016), and fifth in assists with 6,238.

In the playoffs, West was simply brilliant. In 13 playoff years (he missed one year due to injuries), West ranks as the league's all-time leading scorer with 4,457 points, and his playoff scoring average of 29.1 is second only to that of current Laker Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (30.5).

It was in the playoffs that West earned the nickname "Mr. Clutch." Two of his most memorable playoff accomplishments were in the 1964-65 playoffs when he averaged a remarkable 40.6 points a game, and the 1970 playoffs when he sank a 60-foot shot with no time remaining to send a Lakers-Knicks game into overtime.

In his 14 years with the Lakers he led the team in scoring nine times, assists 10 times, and foul shooting nine times. He is the all-time Laker leader in scoring, assists, field goals made, free throws made, and minutes played.

The awards and honors that West has won for his brilliance on the court are records in themselves. He was selected to play in the NBA All-Star game for 13 consecutive years—no player has ever been chosen more times. He was selected to yearly All-Star teams 12 times—10 first and two seconds—another record that no one has ever bettered.

Incredibly, West never won the Podoloff Trophy as the NBA's Most Valuable Player, but three times he finished second in the voting and four more he placed among the top five.

However, Sport Magazine selected him the league's Most Valuable Player in 1969 and he was the All-Star Game's MVP in 1972.

West's amateur accomplishments are as impressive as his professional statistics.

A native of Chelyan, West Virginia, he became a high school standout at East Bank High School, where he led his team to the state championship in 1956, averaging 32.2 points. That year he bacame the first high school player in West Virginia history to score over 900 points in a single season (902).

West went on to West Virginia University where he set 12 school records, graduated with 24.8 career scoring average and was twice named an All-American.

West also captained the 1960 United States Olympic Basketball team which won a gold medal in Rome, and played on the championship United States team in the 1958 Pan American games.

Jerry and his wife Karen reside in Pacific Palisades.

STAN ALBECK
ASSISTANT COACH

Few coaches have a broader basketball base than Lakers' defensive corrdinator Stan Albeck. The 47-year old native of Chenoa, Illinois is known throughout the country for his imaginative and innovative approach to the game.

Albeck graduated from Bradley University in 1955 and the next year got his coaching career off to an auspicious start by guiding Adrian College (Michigan) to a 16-5 record. For the next 11 years (1957-68) he coached at Northern Michigan University, compiling a 178-74 record that included five NAIA appearances.

Albeck moved to Denver University in 1968 and was quickly tabbed "The Miracle Man of the Rockies" for guiding the team to a 14-11 record in his second year. That season he was selected NCAA Coach of the Year for the Rocky Mountain area.

Albeck went into professional basketball in 1970, serving as the assistant coach with three ABA teams—the Denver Rockets (1970-72), San Diego Conquistadors (1972-74), and Kentucky Colonels (1974-76).

Noted for his keen basketball analysis, Albech co-authored "Coaching Better Basketball," a book that is used in 50 universities as a Theory of Basketball text.

Married, Stan and his wife, Phyllis, have five children—Gary 23; Sheree 21; twins Jon and Roger 19; and Julie 16. The Albecks reside in Tarzana.

JACK McCLOSKEY
ASSISTANT COACH

When Jack McCloskey talks basketball, people listen. And little wonder, considering that in 22 years of coaching on both the collegiate and professional level, the Lakers' offensive coordinator has compiled a record of excellence that is second to none.

Winning basketball has become a tradition with the 52-year-old native of Mahanoy City, Pennsylvania. In 16 years as a major college coach, McCloskey produced over 300 victories, and in his two years as head coach of the Portland Trail Blazers (1972-74), he established new standards of excellence.

A 1948 graduate of University of Pennsylvania, McCloskey became head coach at his Alma Mater in 1956. He began with a team that was 7-19 and when he left—10 years later—Penn was 19-6 and one of the top-ranked teams in the East.

McCloskey moved to Wake Forest University in 1966 and met with the same degree of success. He inherited a 5-21 team and in the next six years he guided the school to four winning seasons.

Highly sought after by professional teams, McCloskey accepted the head coaching job with the Portland Trail Blazers in 1972, and in the next two years led the fledgling expansion team to its first back-to-back 20-win seasons.

Married, Jack and his wife, Leslie, live in Palos Verdes.

CHICK HEARN THE VOICE OF THE LAKERS

He describes his style as a "words eye view" and according to one syndicated columnist, its "the best view in the world". It belongs to Chick Hearn, "The Voice" of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Hearn, now in his 18th season behind the microphone, is the only play-by-play announcer that the Lakers have had since moving to Los Angeles in 1960. His astute coverage, quick wit, and unlimited vocabulary that includes such expressions as "faked into the popcorn machine", "yo-yoing up and down", and "the mustard is off the hotdog", have made him one of the most popular broadcast figures in the nation.

He also is one of the most durable announcers in the business. Since missing a game during the 1965-66 season due to flight problems, Hearn has now called 1034 consecutive regular season and 131 straight playoff games in a streak that stretches over 11 seasons.

Hearn's talents, however, do not rest solely in basketball coverage. "What sets Hearn apart is his ability to broadcast every kind of sporting event with great skill," writes one reporter, and Hearn has proven just that by announcing football, major golf tournaments, major league baseball, horse racing, and the first Ali-Frazier heavyweight championship fight.

In addition to his broadcast responsibilities, Hearn wears two other hats in the Lakers' organization. In 1967 he was named Director of Communications for California Sports Inc., and in 1972 he was named the Lakers' Assistant General Manager.

A native of Aurora, Illinois, Hearn attended Aurora College, where he played varsity basketball. His first taste of broadcast experience came after World War II when he was stationed in Manila and responsible for announcing the play-by-play of a touring baseball team for the Armed Forces Network.

Afterwards he returned to Aurora to broadcast high school basketball, but soon accepted a job as basketball announcer for Bradley University. In 1956 he moved to California when CBS radio chose him to handle the USC football broadcasts. Four years later he accepted the job with the Lakers.

Married, Chick and his wife, Marge, live in Encino.

PAT RILEY
COLOR COMMENTATOR

A smooth style and a sharp basketball mind were his trademarks as a player, and now, in his second season as color commentator, Pat Riley brings the same qualities to the Laker radio and television broadcasts.

A nine-year NBA veteran, the 33-year old native of Schenectady, New York, spent five seasons with the Lakers, 1971 through 1975. In that time he averaged nearly eight points a game while alternating between a starting guard and third guard assignment. Riley's career NBA average is 7.4 points per game.

A three-year Most Valuable Player while playing at the University of Kentucky under the legendary Adolph Rupp, Riley was a first-round draft choice of the San Diego Rockets in 1967. Three seasons later he was taken by Portland in the 1970 expansion draft, but before ever playing a game for the Trail Blazers, he was sold to the Lakers.

Riley's best season with the Lakers came in 1974-75 when he was a starting guard for the first third of the season, before being forced to the bench with injuries. That year he averaged 11 points a game.

The Lakers traded Riley to Phoenix in the Fall of 1975 for guard John Roche. He suffered a knee injury that year which severely limited his playing time, and the next season he announced his retirement from basketball.

Married, Pat and his wife, Chris, live in Brentwood.

JACK CURRAN

Jack Curran, whose career as a professional trainer spans 21 years and encompasses four professional sports, begins his first season as head trainer for the Los Angeles Lakers.

A 45-year old native of Agawam, Massachusetts, Curran spent last season as trainer for the Cleveland Barons of the National Hockey League. No stranger to National Basketball Association, he served for eight seasons (1967-74) as trainer for the Seattle SuperSonics.

In addition to his hockey and basketball experience, Curran is equally familiar with the training responsibilities in two other professional sports, having spent five seasons in baseball and one in soccer. His most recent tours of duty in those sports were a 1964 stint as head trainer for the Richmond Virginians, a Triple A farm team of the New York Yankees; and a season as head trainer for the Seattle Sounders of the North American Soccer League (NASL) in 1974.

A certified Athletic Therapist by the National Athletic Trainers Association, Curran's formal education includes studies at the United States Air Force Medical and Surgical Schools. He is also a 1958 graduate of the School for Trainers at Orlando, Florida.

Curran is known around the country for his clinics on the care and prevention athletic injuries, and has made numerous presentations to medical and paramedical groups.

Married, Jack and his wife, Kay, reside in El Segundo.

YEARS PRO: 9
DATE OF BIRTH: April 16, 1947
PLACE OF BIRTH: N.Y., N.Y.
HIGH SCHOOL: Power Memorial, New York
COLLEGE: UCLA '69
HOW ACQUIRED: Trade—Milwaukee (along with Walt Wesley for Elmore Smith, Brian Winters, Dave Meyers and Junior Bridgeman), June 16, 1975.

1977-78 SEASON: Missed one quarter of the season due to injury and still ranked among the top players in the NBA on both offense and defense... Broke the fourth metacarpal of the right hand in the first two minutes of the opening game of the tear when he punched Milwaukee center Kent Benson in retaliation for a thrown elbow... Injury caused him to miss the next 20 games... Came back on December 4 and went on to finish fourth in the league in scoring (25.8), fourth in field goal percentage (.550), seventh in rebounding (12.9) and second in shot blocking (2.98)... Had the best free throw percentage of his career (.783)... Best scoring game was a 43-point effort against New Jersey, which tied the single game rebound high in the NBA last year... In that same game grabbed 23 defensive rebounds, tying another NBA single game high in 1977-78... Milestones reached last season included becoming the ninth player in NBA history to score 20,000 career points (March 24 vs Buffalo), and the 14th player in NBA history to grab 10,000 career rebounds (February 3 vs New Jersey)... Selected by Sport Magazine as the Athletic Performer of the Year for 1977.

CAREER: The NBA's Most Valuable Player five of the last eight seasons. Along with Bill Russell is the only player in NBA history to win the award five times... Goes into the 1978-79 season as the leading scorer among active players in the NBA with 20,238 career points... Is also the leading playoff scorer among active players with 2,154 career points... Currently holds the highest career field goal percentage in NBA history (.549), and the highest career playoff scoring average in history (30.3)... Six times selected First Team All-Pro... Seven times selected to play in the NBA All-Star game... Two times selected First Team All-Defensive.

HOW ACQUIRED: Free Agent — August 24, 1978

1977-78 SEASON: Injuries came early and stayed late ... In the third day of training camp sprained ligaments in his right big toe and was out of action until December 6 ... Came back briefly, but was again forced to the sidelines with a sprained ankle ... Was waived by Golden State on February 13 and signed as a free agent by Chicago ... Because of the lateness of his arrival, appeared in only 25 games for the Bulls, averaging nine minutes per game ... Best scoring game was an 18-point night against the Lakers while with Golden State.

CAREER: A good medium-range shooter and a strong rebounder ... Has a career average of six points and five rebounds while playing an average of 17 minutes per game ... Best season was 1974-75 when he came off the bench to average nearly eight points and seven rebounds ... His clutch shooting that season helped take Golden State to the World Championship. In the championship series against Washington averaged nine points and six rebounds and shot a sizzling .739 from the field, while playing only 18 minutes per game ... Had surgery after the 1976-77 season to remove a bone chip from his right ankle, that had hampered him throughout the year.

COLLEGE: Averaged 17 points and 11 rebounds in three seasons at Cincinnati ... Finished as the fifth all-time leading scorer in the school's history behind Oscar Robertson, ron Bonham, Jack Twyman and Paul Hogue.

PERSONAL: Married, Derrek and his wife, Barbara, have three children, Derrek Jr., 9, Dana, 3, and David, 2, and reside in Oakland.

1977-78 SEASON: Was on the way to one of his best seasons in the NBA before suffering a broken finger that kept him sidelined for almost the entire second half of the year ... Carried the team during Kareem's early season absence. In his first 19 games averaged 17 points and nine rebounds, including an 18-point, 16-rebound night against New York and a 20-point, 18-rebound effort against Golden State ... Suffered the first major injury of his basketball career — college or professional — on January 11 when he broke his little finger of his left hand against Kansas City. Missed 28 games with the injury and didn't return to action until the final six regular season games ... Still finished as the team's sixth leading scorer (12.9) and third best rebounder (7.5) ... had a career-high 10 assists against Indiana.

CAREER: As a rookie broke into the Golden State starting lineup after only eight games and went on to win Rookie-of-the-Year honors. In the playoffs that season (1974-75) averaged 15 points, seven rebounds, and put the defensive clamps on Chicago's Bob Love and Washington's Elvin Hayes as Warriors swept to the World Championship ... Has twice been named to the NBA All-Defensive team ... Prior to last season had missed only six games in three seasons due to injury.

COLLEGE: A two-time All-American at UCLA who teamed with Bill Walton to guide the Bruins to the NCAA championship in 1972 and 1973 and the NCAA finals in 1974.

PERSONAL: In the off-season had surgery to remove a cyst from the finger that was broken during the season. Finger was reinforced with a bone graft taken from his right hip ... Carries the nickname "Silk" because of the smoothness and fluidity that marks his style of play ... Resides in Culver City.

TOY
OFFICIAL CAR

Ever since the 1975-76 basketball season, Toyota has been the Official Car of the Lakers. It's just one of the many ways Toyota Motor Sales, U.S.A., Inc., has become part of the American sports scene. In addition to its participation with the Lakers, Kings, and other Forum events, Toyota is actively involved with baseball, soccer, the TV Superstars, football bowl games and the Olympic Games.

Toyota, in 1978, contributed $1 million to help train the U.S. Olympic Team for the 1980 Olympics. This gift was the largest corporate offering ever made to the U.S. Olympic Committee, as of September 1, 1978. In fact, Toyota's donation was four times larger than the former record gift.

Besides its Official Car designation last year, Toyota's sponsored give-aways and basketball shooting contests during halftime at Lakers' home games. These latter two activities were so popular with basketball fans of all ages that Toyota will run similar events during the '78-'79 season.

After you've enjoyed a night of exciting Lakers basketball, take a good look at the exciting Celica GT

LAKERS' HISTORY

GAIL GOODRICH

TOM HAWKINS and ROD HUNDLEY

WILT CHAMBERLAIN

LAKERS YEAR-BY-YEAR

1961 — Lakers first season in Los Angeles after 12 years in Minneapolis ... Finish in second place in the Western Division behind St. Louis ... Forward Elgin Baylor winds up as the second leading scorer in the NBA with 2,538 points and a 34.8 ppg. average ... Playoffs: Defeat Detroit (3-2), but lose to St. Louis (3-4) ... Fred Schaus was the new coach.

1962 — WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Lakers win the West as Jerry West pours in 2,310 points (30.8) and a part-time Elgin Baylor averages 38.3 ... Playoffs: Baylor averages 38.6 points and West 31.5 as the Lakers defeat Detroit (4-2), but lose to Boston (3-4) in the championship series in an overtime seventh game ... Schaus coached.

1963 — WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Elgin Baylor again finishes as the second leading scorer in the league with 2,719 points (34.0) as the Lakers roll to their second division title ... Playoffs: Lakers defeat St. Louis (4-3), but lose to Boston in the finals (2-4) ... Schaus coached.

1964 — West (2,064 pts., 28.7 average) and Baylor (1,983 pts., 25.4 average) finish as the fifth and sixth leading scorers in the league, but Lakers finish in third place behind San Francisco and St. Louis ... Playoffs: Lose to St. Louis (2-3) in first round ... Schaus coached.

1965 — WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... West paces the Lakers with 31.0 ppg. — second best in the league ... Playoffs: Lakers beat Baltimore (4-2) in the division finals despite the absence of the injured Elgin Baylor. Lose to Boston (1-4) in the championship. Jerry West has a record-breaking playoff, scoring an incredible 447 points for a 40.6 average in the 11 games played. Schaus coached.

1966 — WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Lakers lead the NBA in scoring, averaging 119.5 ppg. West again finishes as the league's second best scorer, averaging 31.3 ppg. ... Playoffs: lakers defeat St. Louis (4-3) in the division finals, but lose the World championship to Boston (3-4) in a seventh game that Boston wins by two points, 95-93 ... Schaus coached.

1967 — Plagued by injuries that keep West out of the lineup for 15 games, and Baylor out for 11, the Lakers slide to third place in the Western Division. Playoffs: West manages to play in only one playoff game and the Lakers bow to San Francisco (0-3) in the opening round ... Schaus coached.

1968 — WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Under new coach Butch Van Breda Kolff, Lakers roll to division title despite absence of West for 31 games during regular season ... Baylor leads the team in scoring (26.0), rebounding (941) and assists (355) ... Playoffs: Lakers sweep by Chicago (4-1) and San Francisco (4-0), but lose to Boston (2-4) in championship.

1969 — WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Lakers start slowly, but compile nine-game win streak in November that puts them in first place for the rest of the season ... New Laker Wilt Chamberlain leads league in rebounds (21.1), and field goal percentage (.583) ... Playoffs: Lakers lose first two playoff games but come back to beat San Francisco (4-2), then overwhelm Atlanta (4-1). Lose to Boston (3-4) in seven games, the last game a 108-106 heartbreaker in Los Angeles ... Van Breda Kolff coached.

1970 — WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Injury jinx again hits lakers as Wilt Chamberlain tears knee ligaments and is lost to team for regular season. Lakers finish in second place in division ... Playoffs:With Chamberlain back, Lakers defeat Phoenix (4-3) and Atlanta (4-0), but run out of miracles in the final series against New York, bowing to the Knicks and a hobbling Willis Reed in seven games (3-4) ... Joe Mullaney coached.

1971 — PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Lakers finish a strong seven games ahead of San Francisco for the division crown, despite Baylor missing all but two games in the regular season. Scoring slack was taken up by Chamberlain (20.7), Happy Hairston (18.6) and Gail Goodrich (17.5) ... Playoffs: Both Baylor and West are not in uniform, but Lakers still manage to upset Chicago in seven games (4-3) in the opening round. Team falls to eventual World Champion Milwaukee Bucks in five games (1-4) ... Mullaney coached.

1972 — WORLD CHAMPIONS ... Lakers set record as winningest team in the history of the NBA with 69 wins, and also compile a 33-game win streat — the longest streak in all professional sports, as they finish in first place in the Pacific Division by an amazing 18 games. Goodrich averages 25.9 points and West hands out a league-leading 747 assists ... Playoffs: lakers roll over Chicago (4-0) and eliminate Milwaukee (4-2) to win the Western Division. Los Angeles spots New York a one game lead in the finals, but then rolls to four straight wins to gain the World Championship (4-1). In the final game Wilt Chamberlain hauls down 29 rebounds and scores 24 points as the Lakers win 114-100 ... Bill Sharman is voted Coach-of-the-Year.

1973 — WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS ... Wilt Chamberlain becomes the first player in NBA history to shoot over 70% from the field (.727) and the Lakers have the second best record in the club's history, winning 60 and losing only 22 ... Playoffs: Lakers down Chicago (4-3) and Golden State (4-1) to again face New York for the championship. Lakers win first game, but Knicks' pressure defense causes Los Angeles to average 19 turnovers per game and New York wins the next four and the title (1-4) ... Sharman coached.

1974 — PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Lakers stage a tremendous comeback in the last seven games of the season to erase Golden State's three game lead and win the crown. The accomplishment was even more remarklable considering that they did it without last year's stalwarts Wilt Chamberlain and Jim McMillian and with West sidelined for 51 games. Playoffs: Lose to Milwaukee in opening round (1-4) ... Sharman coached.

1975 — Jerry West retires. Cazzie Russell injures his knee and is out for the balance of the season, and the Lakers miss the NBA playoffs for the first time in 14 seasons. High points of the year include Gail Goodrich's 53 points against Kansas City-Omaha and Happy hairston's 14 rebounds in one quarter against Philadelphia ... Sharman Coached.

1976 — New Laker Kareem Abdul-Jabbar becomes the first Laker in either Minneapolis or Los Angeles to win the League MVP award, the fourth time in his seven-year career that he has received that honor. In one of the most convincing displays of basketball dominance, Abdul-Jabbar leads the league in rebounds, blocked shots, minutes played, is second in scoring, fifth in shooting, and second on the Lakers in steals and assists. However Lakers are totally unable to win on the road (9-32) and are edged out of the playoffs by losing the last two games of the season at Portland and Phoenix ... Sharman coached.

1977 — PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS ... Former Laker great, jerry West, returns to the team as head coach, and in his rookie season guides the lakers to the best record in the NBA — 53-29 — and the Pacific Division title. In the process, Lakers set an NBA record with 37 home wins and a Laker team record with 21 consecutive home victories ... Center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar wins his second straight NBA Most Valuable Player award, the fifth time in his eight year career that he has earned such honors. Playoffs: Lakers defeat Golden State in seven games (4-3) as Abdul-Jabbar averages 37 points, 18.7 rebounds, and shoots .607 from the field. In the Western Conference finals, Lakers are unable to contain Portland's quick guards and are swept, 0-4.

1978 — Five Laker players suffer broken bones in the first half of the season including center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, who breaks his hand in the first two minutes of the opening game of the year when he punches Milwaukee center Kent Benson in retaliation for a thrown elbow ... In addition, forward Kermit Washington is fined $10,000 and suspended 60 days for punching Houston forward Rudy Tomjanovich ... In the second half of the season, with most of the players healthy, Lakers roll to a 28-13 mark, second best in the league ... For the season Lakers shoot .487 from the field, second best in the history of the franchise. Playoffs: Laker guards are pressured into shooting a combined .363 (37-102) from the field as team loses to Seattle, 1-2, in the first round.

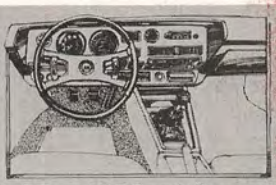
THE 1980's CELICA



The new Toyota Celica. It's here now. A car which meets all 1980 Federal fuel economy and safety standards. The latest Toyota advancements and wind tunnel tests have produced an aerodynamic work of art. The 1978 Celica GT Liftback (pictured), GT and ST Sport Coupes.

A fine machine. The GT Liftback aerodynamics contribute to increased room, stability, and acceleration. The handling formula includes MacPherson strut front suspension and power assisted front disc brakes. The cockpit instrumentation is a beautiful example of functional engineering. And the driver is comforted by a reclining bucket seat with adjustable lumbar support.

The beauty is value. In EPA tests the 1978 Celica GT Liftback was rated at 34 highway, 20 city. These EPA ratings are estimates. Your mileage will vary depending on your driving habits and your car's condition and equipment. California ratings will be lower. Celica GT Liftback options include power steering, automatic transmission and the new sun roof.
